

YOUR GUIDE TO MAKING A COMPLAINT

MAKING YOUR COMPLAINT

2plan wealth management always aims to provide the highest possible service to its customers. However, there may unfortunately be occasions when a customer has cause to complain. When this happens, it is important to us that we resolve the issue quickly and to your satisfaction. This leaflet explains our procedure for dealing with complaints.

HOW WE WILL DEAL WITH YOUR COMPLAINT

2plan wealth management is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). It is entered on the Financial Services Register (www.fca.org.uk/register) under reference 461598.

We are required by the FCA to have appropriate procedures for dealing with complaints.

If there is any aspect of our service about which you are unhappy, then you should contact our compliance team directly, either by telephone or in writing. The members of the team are fully trained to deal with any problems you may have quickly and efficiently.

Most problems can be usually resolved either the same day or on the day following receipt. Some complaints may however, due to their complexity, take more time to investigate. Where this is the case the following process will be followed:

- We will send you a written acknowledgement of your complaint within five business days of receipt of your complaint.
- You will be provided with a copy of this guide together with the name and job title of the person dealing with your complaint.
- We may be able to resolve your complaint based on the information you provide and that which is available to us from our own records.
- It may be necessary, that we may have to ask you for more information to enable us to handle your complaint effectively. If this is the case, we will do so in writing.

When we have decided on our response to your complaint, we will write to you. This letter is called our Final Response Letter. This letter will convey to you the results of our investigation and our final decision. Where we accept your complaint and consider it appropriate to do so, we will set out what redress, if any, we are prepared to offer. If we decide not to accept the complaint, we will explain fully and clearly our reasons for doing so.

If your complaint has still not been resolved within eight weeks of receipt, we will send you:

- a) a letter explaining why we have not resolved your complaint, our reasons for delay and indicating when a Final Response Letter can be expected from us, and
- b) details of your right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.
